

Well-Diggers Cause an Explosion of Dynamite.

While Capping a Gas Pipe Full of the Stuff It Explodes.

Five Men Blown to Pieces and Five Others Hurt. Two of Whom Can Not Live—Burial in the Town of Eyrer.

ENGINOTON, Ill., Oct. 17.—By the premature explosion of dynamite Monday five persons were killed and five injured, two of whom can not live. The killed are:

Chris Eyrer, of the firm of Eyrer Bros., well diggers, Dwight, Ill.

E. C. Fowler, Ensign, Ill.

James Cornwell, Dwight, Ill.

Fred Eyrer, Olney, Ill., cousin of Eyrer brothers.

The injured—James Wyllie, Eminington, Ill.; William Eminington, Ill.; Chris Sherer, Olney, can not live. John Kennedy, Eminington.

Wyllie Bros., of Eminington, who are well diggers, had been contracted with the city of Eminington to furnish a well.

Having gone down to a depth of 305 feet their drill broke, and they were unable to go any farther. Hence they engaged Eyrer Bros. to use dynamite in order to further their work. The latter arrived Monday morning from Dwight and began to work.

A two-foot piece of one and a quarter inch gas pipe was filled with dynamite.

It had killed the tube and was exploded it with solder when the tube exploded.

The killed and injured were thrown over fifty feet by the shock. They were dead and mangled so badly that identification was almost impossible.

The bodies were completely torn from their bodies. The bodies of the dead were picked up all around. The shock was plainly felt at Campus, five miles from the scene of the explosion. The bodies were badly damaged, hardly a piece of glass remaining in the fronts. Dr. E. C. Sherman, the town physician, was standing in his office when the explosion took place and was knocked down, and his entire stock of drugs was scattered all over the shelves, breaking everything.

Henderson's general store is completely wrecked. Conroy Sisters' millinery shop is badly damaged, where the explosion occurred, is demolished, the doors and windows all being blown out. Brown's butcher shop, opposite the place of the explosion, was completely wrecked. J. F. Johnson's real estate office was also wrecked. Not a window or door is left. The plaster on all the front rooms is all blown off.

The bodies of the Wyllie brothers are blown full of splinters and dirt, and their hair is all blown off.

Heard by Mashed Burglars.

CAMPUS, Oct. 17.—Henry Becker was severely bruised and beaten by masked burglars. He was awakened by their entrance and called for help.

The burglars had been under the door and left him with his head lying in a pool of blood. Seven dollars and a silver watch were taken. Two years ago Becker had been burglarized by the same party from the effects of which he nearly died.

A Franco-Russian Agreement.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 17.—The Official Messenger announces that an agreement has been reached between Russia and France by which Russian vessels will withdraw from the Baltic which competes with that of the British.

The agreement is a result of the Franco-Russian alliance, which France regarded as coasting trade which ought to be confined to the French.

A Three-Masted Schooner.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 17.—A three-masted schooner was reported sunk in Gravelly bay by Capt. Daydall, of the steamer Nooka. As a yawl boat was towed up by the name of the ship, the supposed lost steamer was the Typo, which is owned by Capt. W. H. McGrover, of Detroit. The Typo, however, has been at Viper's cove for a week.

Another Fenceknacker Killed.

MACON, Miss., Oct. 17.—Nicholas Robertson, a colored man, was killed Monday morning by his nephew, N. Stewart, a brother of the deceased man, and Stewart was engaged in a fight, when the elder Robertson attempted to separate them and was killed. The murderer was arrested.

A Royal Restraint.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Oct. 17.—An assignee says that the carcass was Monday evening formally bestowed to Princess Victoria, second daughter of prince of Wales.

The princess, who is now in the grand Duke Nicholas, was born May 15, 1883, and is about two months older than Princess Victoria, who was born July 15, 1867.

One of the Stars on Trial.

FR. SMITH, Ark., Oct. 17.—Henry Starr, one of the most notorious train and bank robbers in the west, is on trial here for his part in the specific charge in the killing of United States Deputy Marshal Floyd Wilson, in the Indian Territory last December. Starr is a half-breed, 35 years old.

Murdered Over a Game.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 17.—John Griffith, a young married man, shot and instantly killed James Coleman, aged 35 years, in a game of cards. The two were engaged in a game of cards in an old house, and Griffith became enraged at Coleman and shot him through the heart.

A Russian Loan.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 17.—The Russian minister of finance, Prince Count Witte, has issued a decree for the purchase of 50,000,000 rubles, which sum is guaranteed by the gold reserve.

AN HONORABLE REVOLT.

Binghamton Republican.—There is an honorable revolt of honorable Democrats against Maynard.

A LOAD.

Kansas City Journal.—It will take some of Tammany's most skillful rascality to pull Maynard through this time.

A BARBAIN'S A BARBAIN.

Kansas City Journal.—The President has little patience with all this talk about Van Allen's untidiness. Business is business.

THEY DON'T MIX.

Kansas City Journal.—Workington will have to learn that they cannot have Democratic reform and Republican wings at one and the same time.

WELL DEFINED.

Kansas City Journal.—There is a well defined feeling that the opposition has gone about far enough in helping the Administration carry out its policies.

THE DUFFY.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.—The question as to tariff reform is not what duties can be dispensed with, but what new ones can be most safely imposed to provide the indispensable amount of revenue.

TOO WELL KNOWN.

Buffalo Commercial.—The Democratic ring newspapers sneer at the Republican state candidates as a lot of "nobodies." The trouble with the Democratic nobodies is that they are too well known for their own credit.

THE NEXT GOVERNOR OF MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston Journal.—Mr. Greenbald's pointed remark that a foreign born citizen with native principles is better than a native born citizen with foreign principles seems to sting some of his opponents of the other party, and no wonder.

WHAT MAYNARD'S COST.

Utah Herald.—Maynard's crime made absolute control of state affairs by Hill Democrats possible, and brought in to the train the recklessness which has more than doubled the tax rate, in addition to repudiating of $5,000,000 of income from corporation and collateral inheritance taxes!

THE TAMMANY TIGER JESTS.

Boston Journal.—Certainly there is a sardonic humor in that resolution of the New York Democratic Convention which congratulates President Cleveland and the country upon the "auspicious beginning" of his Administration. Such wit as that ought not to be diverted from the comic press.

It is sold at the same price as any other Louisville paper—per copy or 35 cents a month, delivered by carrier or by mail.

If you are looking for the most for your money, you can get it in THE LEDGER.

Now is the time to subscribe—subscribe you give it a month's trial.

Circulation More Than 1,000 Daily.

The Business Way!

The business way to advertise is to take pains with your advertisements in making them attractive, and change them at least as often as once a month.

You may think there are seasons when you don't need to advertise.

We have never seen that time.

Use the dull seasons for looking over your stock and running off that which is becoming out of style or unsalable, and giving bargains.

If you have space by the year, it costs you no more, and you can make it profitable by converting unsalable goods into money, and reinvesting the money in those things which are salable.

SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

The Headquarters of the Senatorial District composed of the counties of Mason and Lewis will meet in convention at the Courthouse in Mayville on Tuesday, October 10th, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the State Senate.

Each county will be entitled to one vote for every one hundred voters for one vote in 1902.

R. N. JONES, Chairman Senatorial District Committee.

Where is That Banner Now?

Greenback (Ind.) Banner—During the last campaign the Democrats of this city displayed a banner in their procession bearing the inscription:

Vote for Grover Cleveland and get $25,000,000.

A liberal reward will be given to that banner at this office, and no questions asked.
